LARGE PARADE FOR FOURTH OF JULY

Sergeant-Major E. W. Ely of the Second Infantry, commander of the Department of Hawaii, United States Spanish war veterans has notified Chairman Towse of the Fourth of July committee of the veterans' acceptance of the committee's invitation that they take part in the Fourth of July parade. Altogether the camps of the veterans here have a membership of about 450, and the commander reports that all are willing to turn out.

A large number of the Spanish war veterans are at Schofield Barracks, however, and as the expense of bringing them in would be over $400, only the two camps in Honolulu will march. The acceptance we have received are enough to assure the success of the parade," said Towse. "The prompt reply of Commander Ely, couched in terms showing fine public spirit and patriotism, was very pleasing to the committee."

The organizations now assured for the procession include the War Veterans, Moose, Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias, Boy Scouts, police and band. There will also be a big division of auto trucks decorated with the national colors. Committeeman Frazier, who is handling this end of the work, expects to make an impressive showing.

Senator Chillingworth, marshal of the day, favors having a short march through the business center only. He will have a conference this afternoon or tomorrow with Manager Ballentine of the Rapid Transit Company regarding the line of march, in order that the street car system may accommodate itself as far as possible to the needs of the parade. The march proposed at present is from the Capitol along King street to Nuuanu, or some street beyond, thence to Beretania and back to the Capitol where the patriotic exercises are to be held.

COMMUNITY ASKED TO DECIDE UPON CLEAN-UP DATE

1. There was much less public enthusiasm over the second than over the first Clean-up Day, and if the third was likely to show a further declining interest it might as well be deferred until some threat of pestilence, like the yellow fever scare, produced another spasm.

2. It means the doing by private citizens of what the constituted authorities should do, together with the neglect by other citizens of their duty to keep their own places clean—lazily anticipating that the work will be done for them on Clean-up Day.

3. Efforts of the improvement organization should be concentrated upon obtaining a free system of removal and disposal of garbage. This view was urged by Mr. Pond.

With regard to the last point, hold-over members of the committee told of efforts already made in behalf of a free garbage system, resulting in election pledges thereof, and although it appeared that the municipal finances did not yet allow of the improvement a beginning had been made. The acquisition of one auto garbage wagon, with free collection in a limited area, was a start made by the board of supervisors previous to the present one. Although the modicum of free service stated had now been abandoned, it was hoped that the plant would be gradually improved until the way should be clear for venturing upon a universally free system. Mr. Guild suggested that in the meantime the collection might be made free in the more congested sections, where the poverty of the people made even moderate fees a burden. This, it is probable, will be urged upon the supervisors.

Selected as the most meritorious of 1,100 Porto Rican teachers who took a correspondence course in agriculture at the university of Porto Rico, Jose C. Rosario will have a free trip to New York and Washington in the near future. Mr. Rosario was one of seven whose work was deemed specially noteworthy by the faculty, and he was selected for the prize trip by vote of his fellow-teachers.

H. M. WELLS, ALSO, IS SLATED TO 'RESIGN'

principals, and otherwise, occupied the last half of the session this morning. The name of George S. Raymond, at present supervising principal of Lahaina and Molokai, was submitted for the position of inspector of the schools of Hawaii, and approved by the board. It is not known, however, whether or not Raymond will accept the position. He has been with the department as principal for more than two years, and was said by Gibson to be the only person now eligible for the position. R. C. Bowman, principal of the Lahaina school, was recommended by Gibson to take Raymond's place should he accept. Other persons recommended for the supervising principalships were H. H. Brodie, for Kauai; Mrs. Mary Gunn, first school school division of Oahu, and Miss Margery Freeth, of the second division.

The supervisors of Maui may have to dig deep into the county coffers in order to meet with the demands of the present board, for a resolution, calling for a grammar and high school at Hamakua, Maui, for the accommodation of the children of the homesteaders, was presented and adopted. The purpose of such a school is to provide for the advancement of the English-speaking children to as great an extent as possible. The department of public instruction will furnish three and probably four teachers and the supervisors of the county of Maui will be asked to provide the funds. Such a school as this has long been advocated both locally and by the residents of Maui, and it is expected that the present plans will meet with all the necessary requirements.

Vocational Training Approved
The tentative outline with regard to vocational training in the schools of Hawaii, as presented to the commissioners by Superintendent Gibson, was accepted by that body, and definite action on the matter has been deferred to later in the session. The last legislature appropriated $45,000 for this purpose, and as the figures now stand, it will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000 to install a complete system. The summary by committees, as mentioned in the plan, follows:

Hawaii: Hilo town, $865; district of Hilo and Puna, $1200; Kau district, $600; districts of Kona, Kohala and Hamakua, $6610; County of Maui, $4450; County of Honolulu, $7200; County of Kauai, $4490. Total, $25,415.

Upon a request from a number of residents of Schofield Barracks, the commissioners are now considering plans for a schoolhouse at that place to cost $2400. Definite action on this matter has been deferred until later in the meeting. The morning session adjourned at twelve o'clock and resumed at two o'clock.

world that when he can, with propriety, make his side of the case clear, he will be completely vindicated. He asserts that he made no such remarks as are credited to him and that he will produce, at the proper time, affidavits to disprove the charges. He has a conference with the attorney general this afternoon, and said this morning that he has every hope the proceedings will not be brought after he has talked with the attorney general and shown what he alleges is the unfairness behind the McBride charges.

FILIPINOS WEAKEN AS DEATH DATE APPROACHES

The final scene of the final act in the tragic lives of the three Filipino murderers, awaiting execution at Oahu prison, probably will take place at 8:30 o'clock on the morning of July 8, two weeks from today. Though the death warrants have not yet been signed by the governor, this is the date fixed by him, and High Sheriff William Henry announced today that the hanging likely will be held at the hour here stated.

He also says that this final gruesome act will consist of two scenes, two of the doomed men to be executed together, and the third one alone. The facilities for a triple execution not being afforded at Oahu prison, is his reason for this procedure. He has not determined which two of the three will be paired.

The high sheriff also announced that it is to be a quasi-public affair. Newspaper representatives, public officials who have been actively engaged in the prosecution of the men and two official witnesses will be permitted to see the spectacle.

On behalf of a large number of Chinese, friends or relatives of the young Kahauiki grocer and his wife who were slain by the doomed men, the Chinese consul has asked the high sheriff's permission for their attendance, but the latter said this morning that he did not think it good policy and the request probably will be denied.

"The death penalty is in itself bad enough for any crime, but I do not think the extreme penalty is intended by law to serve as a revenge," said Sheriff Henry. "It is inflicted to set an example, not to satisfy a blood-lustful vengeance; permitting the friends of those whom the murderers killed, to witness the execution would serve no good end. They should be content to know that the criminals pay the full penalty."

"Since their last appearance in court, when the sentence was pronounced, the Filipinos have, witted visibly," continued Henry. "In this they are true to type. The Kahauiki crime as well as the other murder to which they have recently confessed, were cowardly in nature, acts that only cowards would perform. Now they are showing that cowardice again, for as the time for their death approaches they are gradually weakening, showing not a bit of the bravado that marked their appearance in court."

"The Kahauiki slaughter was the most cowardly murder that I can remember in the annals of island crime."

SUPERVISORS MAY COME TO AID OF HOME

because of insufficient funds. Even doubling the previous amount given by the board of supervisors fails to make up what is needed. Therefore, I most strongly urge that the board increase Leahi fund to $500 per month—even, if necessary to do so, cut out the $250 allotted to the promotion committee, as it is more important for the city and county to care for our indigent sick than to bring in many who in time eventually become public charges."

The budget passed its final reading at the meeting today. Arrangements were made by the supervisors to make a tour of inspection of the schools on the far side of the island. They will leave tomorrow morning. The purpose of the trip is to see the condition of the institutions and to pass on the merits of requests for minor improvements.

The city fathers will meet again Saturday noon to approve the monthly pay rolls.

Morning on Change

The news from Washington reporting strong Democratic opposition to the free sugar clause in the tariff bill, asserted during the caucus on the bill, sent a ripple of excitement along the "street" this morning. The news was received just before the exchange convened, not hardly soon enough to boost up stock prices. However, Ewa and Hawaiian Sugar sold at a slightly advanced price, both of which were noted in small sales. Ewa was traded at 16.125, an eighth of a point advance, and Hawaiian Sugar at 24.50, a half point over its former sale.

One hundred shares of Olia were thrown on the market and sold at 1.25, 15 Oahu Sugar at 13.50, Pioneer at 18.50 and Oahu at 13.50. Nothing new was developed in the prices which they brought.

Gregorio Anbal, one of the Filipinos arrested last December on Maui for burglarizing the postoffice at Kapa-hulu, on that island, this morning entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to eight months' imprisonment by U. S. District Judge Dole.

U. S. Marshal E. R. Hendry returned this morning from Hilo, where he served subpoenas on Captain Mosher, the port pilot, and Peter MacRae, head huna of Olia plantation, who are wanted here as witnesses in the civil suit of the Puget Sound Commercial Company against the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. The suit is to recover on the wreck of the vessel Kilikiat, which was wrecked on the shore of east Hawaii some months ago.

For these birth certificates, which permit the children to return to the United States again at any future time, the territory receives a fee of $5 each, the total revenue for the recent issue amounting to about $2750.

LARGE SUM TO COMPLETE POST AT LEILEHUA

eral defense of Oahu have been changed by the war department, so that a full regiment of cavalry, instead of only two squadrons, is called for in the garrison of the island. Congress, however, has not taken action on this increase, and the funds appropriated are for the completion of the original two-squadron barracks, quarters, stables and headquarters building.

"We expect a cable at any time now, containing the necessary authorization to proceed with the work," said Major Cuetnam this morning. "Already about $200,000 has been expended, part of the construction of barracks, stables and officers' quarters having been completed. The $350,000 made available by the passage of the sundry civil bill will give us enough to complete the post for eight troops. We will rush the work as rapidly as possible."

While it is a mere matter of conjecture as to what will be done with the squadron that is left out in the cold, the belief seems to prevail among local army officers that until congress takes action to enlarge the original plans, one squadron would have to remain in cantonment, or go into camp. At any rate, a permanent home for two-thirds of a regiment is now assured. Probably the Fourth Cavalry will be established at Castner before the first of next year.

Fines imposed by the federal courts against "trusts" during the current fiscal year for alleged violations of the Sherman law aggregate to date $151,957.
